

What Do You Do With the Baby Sitter (c) 1987 Hans Mayer & Frank

What do you do with the babysitter
What do you do with the babysitter
What do you do with the babysitter
When your parents go out

Watch TV and play some games - Stick out our tongue and call her names
Scream and cry till you get your way - With the babysitter

Dump stuff out of the kitchen cupboards - Throw some pillows at the babysitter
Pull everything out of the refrigerator - When she is not looking

And that's what you do with the babysitter...

Hold your breath 'til you turn blue - Put rice krispies in her shoes
Smear the phone with super glue - When her boyfriend calls up

Tie her up and tickle her toes - Stuff some kleenex up her nose
Put some ice down in the clothes - Of the babysitter

And that's what you do with the babysitter...

Threaten and say 'I'll tell my mom you hit me - If i can't sty up and watch the TV
I don't want to go to bed, I'm not sleepy - You mean old babysitter"

And that's what you tell the babysitter...

Pretend you're an angel dearly sleeping - When up the stairs Mom and Dad come creeping
If they guess you're awake , we just start screaming - And blame the
babysitter

And that's what you do with the babysitter...
