

Beep Beep (c) 2006 Hans Mayer

I should look up when I'm walking
But instead I'm looking down
Down at my feet as they hit the pavement
Looking at all of the things on the ground
Like my shoe laces that are untied
Like the tin can I kicked aside

Beep, beep goes the horn on a car that's passing
Honk goes the truck as it's rolling by
Hello says the girl that's walking towards me
I say hi as I'm smiling wide
She says my shoe laces are untied
As she kicks the can that I kicked aside

We start kicking the can down the sidewalk
Through the alley as we walk through town
Telling each other what we'll do this summer
When school is out and we're finally done
I'm going to bend down tie the laces of my shoes
She's going to leave town with her family on a cruise

Beep, beep goes the horn on the car that's passing
Honk goes the truck as it's rolling by
I jump over the puddle in the alley
She jumps over right behind
She says that she has to be home soon
But, she will see me at school

Beep, Beep