

Down On Grandpa's Farm (c) 2006 Hans Mayer

Bill and Fred were playing in the field - down on Grandpa's farm
Laughing and running and kicking up their heels - down on Grandpa's farm
There was a patch of mud where no corn grew
Fred jumped over, Billy ran through Billy started shouting "I lost my shoe" - down on Grandpa's farm

The only thing to do was go back for his shoe - down on Grandpa's farm
Billy started sinking didn't know what to do - down on Grandpa's farm
Stuck in the mud clear up to his knees
Billy started yelling "Freddy help me please"
Fred kept running "You can't catch me" - down on Grandpa's farm

Aunt Eve called out "lunch time" - Fred made it to the house in record time Sitting at the table someone asked "Where's Bill" - Guilty faced, Fred was keeping still

A search party was sent out fast - down on Grandpa's farm
They found Billy in the mud at last - down on Grandpa's farm
Pulled him out with only one shoe
Whimpering, sniffing, feeling blue
Then back to the house for some good hot stew - down on Grandpa's farm

Later on we all had a good laugh - down on Grandpa's farm
Bill felt better and Fred was glad - down on Grandpa's farm
But ever since that day Billy got stuck
He stayed away from the mud and much
He got a new pair of shies and a new toy truck - down on Grandpa's farm