

The Monkey Bar (c) 2002 Hans Mayer

Grab a vine, swing right in, swing your partner, limb to limb
Swinging left, swinging right, swinging at the Monkey Bar tonight

At the Monkey Bar, the Monkey Bar where all the cool monkeys hang out Picking on each other eating bananas, every monkey's got to swing and shout

Any monkey's who is any monkey will be swing there tonight with their fancy dos dressed to kill, man, I tell you it's quite the sight

Chitter chatter, chitter chatter, monkeys got a lot on their mind
So if you want the place to meet and speak, it's the Monkey Bar anytime
See no evil, hear no evil, speak no evil to the monkeys you see
And you'll have more fun than a barrel of monkeys,
You could be swinging with the chimpanzee

So, grab a vine, swing right in, swing your partner, limb to limb

Silly monkey, spiny monkey, chasing tails all night long Till their so dizzy their world is spinning, look at all the monkeys falling down
Swinging tails, swinging toes to the Monkey's greatest hits Swinging friends, swinging clothes, if you can't swing boy you'd better sit Every monkey's got to swing you know, swinging high, swinging low

So, grab a vine, swing right in, swing your partner, limb to limb
You know, grab a vine and swing right in, swing your partner limb to limb
Oh, swinging, swinging, swinging at the Monkey Bar tonight
Oh Yeah
