

Wrist Watch

I got a wrist watch for my birthday
I turned five years old today
I got a wrist watch like daddy's
Wish I could tell what the darn thing says

Chorus

But I can't tell time yet
It's a mystery to me
Can't tell if it's half past twelve
Or a quarter to three

I got a wrist watch for my birthday
Hold it to my ear and hear it tick
I know how to wind up the little knob
Reading what the face says
That's the trick
Cause (Chorus)

Look at the nifty leather band
Won't someone please explain again
That stuff about the big and little hands
Cause (Chorus)
